ed with the grocery firm of Foust & Kittinger and at present is employed at the Goodrich Co. Miss Todd was an employee of the Central Union Telephone Co. After the ceremony an excellent lunch was served.
Among the out of town guests were Mrs. James, wife of the pastor, Mr.
Todd, a sister of the bride, Mr. Maynard of Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Young of Findlay, O. and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Kenton O. A large number of beautiful presents were received and all had a pleasant time the remainder of the day.

Swartz—Hook.

Mr. Elmer Swartz and Miss Ada May Hook were united in marriage by C. J. Tanner, at his residence, 578 W. Market st. Wednesday at 6
P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Swartz left that evening for Cleveland. On returning they will make their home in Akron.

Four Thanksgiving Weddings.

Rev. E. R. Willard, pastor of the Grace Reformed church, helped four bride couples to have a genuine Thanksgiving.

On Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock Henry C. Ziesky and Miss Minnie V.
Manderbach were married at the pastor's home, 122 North Summit st. They will reside at the corner of Grant and East Vortic st.

At 9:30 Wednesday evening Bert C. Larkin and Miss Lena Roth were wedded at 122 North Summit st.
The groom's sisters, Misses May and Jennie Larkin, attended the bridal couple. Miss Roth formerly lived in Chicago, but has been in Akron for nearly a year previous to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Larkin will be at home to their friends at 101 South Broadway.

On Thanksgiving afternoon Percy Allam of Ft. Collins, Col., and Miss Gracie May Myers were married at the home of the bride's father A. H. Myers, 104 Crouse st. The wedding took place at 1:30 p. m., and was witnessed by the nearest relatives of the bride. A genuine Thanksgiving dinner was heartily enjoyed after the wedding ceremonies were concluded. Mr. and Mrs.
Allam will go to Colorado in about two weeks and expect to make Ft.
Collins their future home.

The home of Mrs. Frances E. Kidder, 110 Portage st., was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening.
About 40 guests were present. The contracting parties were William Jones and his fair bride was Miss Verna J. Kidder. Mrs. David Wilson presided at the piano. At precisely 7:30 the bride and groom entered the parlor, attended by Mr.
and Mrs. Oscar Kidder of Cuyahoga Falls. The pretty ring service was used in taking the marriage vows.
A fine wedding supper was served and the evening was one of much joy and mirth. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside at the Kidder home, 110 Portage st.

Married, on the evening of November 29, at the parsonage of the Trinity Lutheran church, Mr. Herman F.
Reiman and Mrs. Martha Sprague.
Mr. and Mrs. Reiman will reside at 281 Brown st.

Dr. Kenson of Mansfield spent Thanksgiving with T. R. Palmer of Fay st.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint G. Ford spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Bennett of 101 Wills av.
Mrs. Ford, whose stage name is Lillian Kingsbury, is the leading lady in "Don't Tell My Wife," played here by the Felix Riser company last evening. Her husband plays the role of George Washington White, the colored porter.

THOUGHT

He Had Caught Wade.

Wife Was Going to Dress
In Men's Clothes

And Meet Her Fugitive
Husband In Cleveland.

Detective Burlison and Deputy Hollinger

Entertain a Caller From Stow—Murder News.

A colored man named Scott rushed into the sheriff's office Thursday and told Deputy Hollinger that he was on the track of Jo Wade, the colored murderer of Jo Turner.

Scott told the Deputy and County Detective Burlison that Wade had been seen in Cleveland, and had arranged to meet Mrs. Wade there Thursday night. He named the place of meeting. "Mrs. Wade is going to dress in men's clothes," said Scott, "and is going to meet her husband after dark. She moved from Stow township to Cleveland today."

It is understood that Detective Burlison is in Cleveland today working on the case.
Information has come to the local officers that the woman supposed to be Mrs. Wade, and with whom he was living in Stow township, is not his wife. The officers are not inclined to place much credence in this report.

"RAMSHACKLE"

Coroner Leberman So Defines the Northern Ohio Depot.

Coroner Leberman has filed a verdict in two cases. On Sept. 23, Mrs.
Theresa Dressler was killed by a Northern Ohio train at the depot on North Main st. The Coroner holds the company largely responsible for the accident, on account of the "ramshackle" condition of its depot.

The Coroner finds that Abraham Klein was killed by jumping from a moving B. & O. train Sept. 2.

TOP THE MONEY.

Kirkwoods Decamped with All the Gate Receipts.

It has developed that the Kirk-woods not only won Thursday's game but all of the gate receipts. The original understanding was that the losers should have 25 per cent. Later the teams began to banter each other and the Elks offered to lose all, if they failed to score. Members of the Elks club say this agreement was made without the club's knowledge.
There were 2200 paid admissions to the game.

Hassenflue-Prange.

A prominent event in Akron social circles was the marriage Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock of Dr. John W.
Hassenflue, of 1123 South Main st., to Miss Myrtle E., oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Prange of 607 Miami st.

The wedding was a home affair, attended only by immediate friends and relatives of the young couple. Rev. J. W. King, pastor of the Main Street M. E. church, performed the ceremony, using the ring service. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Steinbrenner, and daughter, Miss Flora, and Miss Carrie McMillen, of Cleveland. The bride and groom received many beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Hassenflue will reside at 232 Coburn st.

TEN REASONS

Why I expect to do a successful business in
